Cyclone Sidr Disaster Response by Concern Worldwide, Bangladesh

Concern Worldwide, Bangladesh has deployed Concern staff and partner organisation staff to distribute relief to the affected and extremely poor families, keeping in mind the need to avoid duplication with relief operations by other NGOs.

Concern with funding from ECHO (Euro 580,000), People in Need (€18,000) and Irish Aid (€100,000) started relief operations in Barguna and Patuakhali districts for 26,000 extreme poor families from 24th November and this phase of relief will be completed by 29th November. It has been estimated that over 250 thousand families have been affected in these two districts. Concern sets priority to assist those families who have the least coping capacity and in areas where the response by other organisations may be limited. The relief package being given includes both food and non-food material. The relief package fixed according to International Sphere Standards will provide food for 15 days for each family. The relief operation will be implemented through three partner organisations – Speed Trust (Patuakhali) , Dhaka Ahsania Mission- DAM (Barguna) and Sangram (Barguna).

The relief package for each family include: 30kg rice, 3kg pulses, 2 litres vegetable oil, 1 kg salt, 1 kg semolina, 1 kg sugar, 5 packets of ORS, 2 pieces of soap, 1 blanket, two shawls, 1 mosquito net, 6 candles and 2 boxes of matches.
