National Workshop on Early Recovery

MoFDM-DER is planning for a National Workshop on Early Recovery towards recovery to more disaster resilient communities. The proposed date is January 7, 2007. The goal of the workshop is to gain national momentum for addressing the post-emergency short-term needs of Sidr affected communities. The scope is small scale, targeted and localized schemes/measures to fill the gap between the end of emergency phase and the actual commencement of longer-term recovery phase. The objectives are to promote conducive climate for the investment in early recovery bridging emergency to longer-term reconstruction/redevelopment. To this end, the workshop will aim to achieve the following objectives:

- Government policy shift from emergency to recovery by presenting an action plan.
- A consolidated finding of various assessments relevant to early recovery needs will be discussed in conjunction with government recovery action plan.
- Needs for short-term early activities will be identified and recommendations for immediate actions will be formulated.

The deliverables of the workshop are anticipated as follows:

- A resolution to organize a second National Workshop to validate an Early Recovery Framework in January, including contribution from all DER members.
- A conference's recommendations to Government Recovery Action Plan.
- Consolidated report of early needs assessments.
- Development partners' rehabilitation/development scenarios.
